

A close-up of a necklace made of nano-faceted solitaires diamonds. The necklace is arranged in a circular shape, with the top half consisting of smaller, round diamonds and the bottom half consisting of larger, square-cut diamonds. The diamonds are set in a dark metal, possibly platinum or white gold.

Nano-Faceted Solitaires for Brilliance • Fire • Scintillation

Celeste Solitaires. Brilliant by design.

In the infinite universe of diamonds, solitaires reign as the undisputed crown jewel of all jewels. And in the world of Solitaires, a new star is born – the Celeste solitaire.

Crafted with revolutionary diamond cutting technology and protected by 6 patents, the Celeste solitaire is a ground-breaking innovation in diamonds. Thousands of invisible nano-prisms etched onto its surface create unparalleled brilliance and scintillation, and its fire feels like a billion rainbows in your hand. Behold the Celeste solitaire - skillfully crafted with utmost care and precision for distinguished individuals, like the one holding it now.
